Perla.

Perla, referencing the beautiful white round pearls from pearl oysters, is a symbol of innovation in several ways. It's the iconic collection of CHIC, where elemental natural beauty got combined with updated styling.

The white Perla items are made of the unique formula SiloxiHT. This formula consists of a blend of quality materials, which allows the product to be thinner, more durable, lighter in weight and more translucent than other porcelain variants. SiloxiHT guarantees fine bone china looks with robust characteristics.

Arte.

Arte is a true work of art in itself. The outer surface of each piece features a soft, matte hand-carved texture that creates a subtle and organic appearance. Inside, each piece is beautifully finished with a glossy glaze that enhances the colours and textures of your culinary creations. The contrast between the matte exterior and the glossy interior creates a visual highlight that elevates your presentation to new heights.

Floret.

The items from the Floret collection exude rustic charm. The subtle floral relief gives the collection a distinctive appearance. Romantic, timeless and elegant, this porcelain dinnerware is available in matte white. Additionally, all items are finished with a reactive glaze. This reactive glaze produces unique colour nuances for each product. Each item thus becomes a unique work of art that provides a beautiful backdrop for delicious delicacies in a truly special manner.

Gault&Millau.

Official partner of the Gault&Millau Belux Guide 2025

We are delighted to announce that CHIC Tableware has been appointed as the official partner of the Gault&Millau Guide 2025, forging a prestigious alliance between the world of fine dining and refined tableware. This partnership highlights the shared commitment of both CHIC Tableware and Gault&Millau to excellence in culinary creation and presentation. Just as Gault&Millau meticulously selects and celebrates the finest restaurants and chefs, CHIC precisely crafts elegant tableware to complement and enhance these fine dining experiences. We are honored by this collaboration and excited about the opportunity to contribute to the celebration of culinary expertise.
