Robur has always been committed to designing garments tailored to the unique needs of professionals. It is our firmly held belief that know-how, quality and innovation are the keys to crafting well-fitting, functional workwear that will last a long time and withstand the rigours of the job.

Day in day out, whether you are a chef, waiter, baker or pastry chef, or you work in institutional catering, you contribute to the history of your profession with your passion, creativity and unwavering team spirit. This same passion is what guides our teams as they work alongside you to develop innovative, comfortable and responsible garments that will give you ease of movement and reflect your image.

This year once again, we have expanded our catalogue with some new products designed to combine comfort and style while meeting the demands of your daily life.

In line with our environmental commitment and taking it a step further, having performed the first life cycle assessments (LCAs) on our best-sellers, we are now going to extend this process across our entire product range. This reflects our constant determination to measure our impact, take action to reduce it, and offer our customers ever more responsible solutions. We make every effort to ensure the traceability of our products, use only the highest-quality materials, and preserve the environment.

Robur is proud to be a valued partner for professionals both in France and internationally, through a network of dedicated distributors and a locally based service attuned to your needs.

Thank you for inspiring us every day, and driving us to innovate in order to offer you the very best.

The 37.5® technology improves the body's performance

When we physically exert ourselves, the water vapour from our perspiration escapes through the pores in our skin, helping to lower our body temperature. In fact, each gram of sweat that evaporates releases 580 calories of stored heat.

If this water vapour remains trapped in our clothes, shoes or gloves, however, it builds up and creates a moist and unpleasant environment.

The 37.5® technology optimises the body's natural cooling process since the body produces sweat to regulate its temperature while the 37.5® technology removes this moisture from the environment that is our clothing.

AQUACLEAN washing

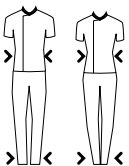

The 'Anti-waste law for a circular economy' (AGEC) plays a key role in the transition to a more sustainable production and consumption model aimed at reducing waste and protecting our natural resources.

Life cycle assessment (LCA) of our top products: in 2025, Robur items will feature environmental labelling with three aims:

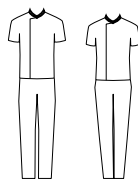

- Inform consumers
- Boost eco-design
- Reduce the sector's impact

SLIM

The fitted style or slim-fit is the up-to-the-minute look. It hugs the body's natural curves and highlights them superbly.

- For jackets: Less free-flowing movement and/or more tucked at the waist
- For trousers: Hugs the legs, tight around the thighs and ankles yet does not squeeze or shape. This style is mainly recommended for slim silhouettes.

REGULAR

The straight-cut or regular-fit is the most traditional style but it's also a timeless classic. The drape is straight.

- For jackets: Comfortable around the bustline and not tucked at the waist
  - For trousers: Straight-cut from top to bottom.
- This regular style fits all body types and should be favoured if you have a rounded stomach or pronounced pelvis. This style sets off your silhouette perfectly without squeezing and ensures optimal comfort.
